

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
1	T. Hooley	E.hooley@derdy.ac.uk	Think more about the social potential of career guidance. How can it be used to link career development with community development.	IAEVG to organize some comparative activity in the use of technology in career guidance
2	Priya Lyngdoh	lyngdohpriya@yahoo.co.in	Keep all what I had learn from the conference valuable. Also most of the workshop had help me to learn new things on how should I handle things in a proper way and also how will I help my client to bring their negative thoughts into positive way. And lot of workshop help me to be more professionals on career guidance.	To appreciate and thanks promise foundation for holding this conference because through these three days this conference really make a difference on my life. I would look forward that I will be able to apply all what I have learn from here.
3			Keep up the spirit of this conference by trying to reach out to the schools by giving the awareness of the important of the career counseling. I myself bring out my interest and potentialities for the above.	To nurture this for the sake of the students from the villages as well as in the urban schools. Let the light shine on the children.
4		khbsan@rediff.com	Work and do more research on indigenous psychology	Prof. Leong to send or give more materials on indigenous psychology.
5	Licha Yania	Anya_li@Rocketmail.com	Implement the things which I have grasped in the conference and look back to workshops and try to understand which I have not.	IAEVG to issue journals, giving more information to the embers, counselors and teachers.
6			Look into traditional occupations as a career in a much much better or focused way.
7	Sumitra M Gautama	sumitra.m.gautama@gmail.com	Apply what I've learnt-working from my context and set up a Post School Programme for Rural Youth.	Promise Foundation to move from strength to strength! THANKS :)
8	Namrata Naomi Rynjah	namirynjah@yahoo.co.in	Utilize and incorporate what I have learnt and discovered in these 3 days into my profession as a counselor. I especially value and appreciate Dr. Leong's session on indigenous career development models and the story telling technique. There is an increasing need to contextualize career counseling in our India in order to make it more feasible for the students concerned.	Promise Foundation to provide updates and help us stay connected.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
9	Deidaphi E Sahkhar (Daphi)	daphis1@aol.com	Take with me the valuable insights which I have learned at this conference, especially the concept of indigenous psychology. It has touched me deeply and it has opened up new windows of perceiving things, when dealing with the youth and their problems relating to career. I believe with this new insight, I can certainly help them in pursuing their dreams without being inhibited by the general concepts (indigenous psychology of the West) of psychology.	To extend my gratitude & thanks to the Promise Foundation for holding such a wonderful and insightful as well as informative conference. I feel that I have grown, as a person, in these three days. I would appreciate it, if more of these conferences are held. That way, we can learn to be more efficient, as counselors, in helping the child and the youth of the country. Together, we can definitely make a difference in the life of others!
10	Samuel Isaacs	sisaacs@saqa.co.za	See that all of SAQA know about this mindful learning experience and the lessons for our work and being.	To follow up on how to make the SA National Career Advice Helpline as holistic and learner centered as possible.
11	Roberta Neault	roberta@lifestrategies.ca	Find concrete ways (at least 5) to raise awareness (i.e., from unconscious incompetence → conscious incompetence → conscious competence) re what we desperately need to learn from other countries and other disciplines.	Canadian funders and professional career associations to embrace the notion of "livelihood".

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
12	Hazel Reid	hazel.reid@canterbury.ac.uk	Re-read my draft chapter on 'multiculturalism' in a book Jane Westergaard and I are writing on counseling young people - I want to ensure I include my learning from this conference.	Read more! Spend some time thinking about how (as a 'non-believer'-in terms of religion) to introduce spirituality in my life-protect a time and space for this to begin-with the hope this will develop into a habit rather than a diary event.
13	Vicente Hernandez (Spain)		Know more about India culture and educational system.	In the next congress see/assist psychology students of different countries too. Thanks for your work.
14	Simon Easton	simon.easton@port.ac.uk	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> To seek guidance in adapting Quality of working life concept to different cultures from conference attendees. Explore further relevance of measuring quality of working life in relation to career development. 	The Promise Foundation to continue its good work.
15	Dr. Suchitra Ramakumar	peepultree@hotmail.com	Reflect on all the new ideas, plan my course of action.	To work with underprivileged children young adults to help them with their work decisions, placements, livelihoods support. I would like to spend a year understanding what I can do by visiting various organizations/meeting people in the area.
16	Wantina Kharkongor	tina2010.rb@gmail.com	Take up "career counseling" seriously, and reaching out to the indigenous people, whose means of livelihood is still very traditional.	"IAEVG" AND "The Promise Foundation" to guide, help and support as I am taking up a new challenge.
17	Manjuri Palit Bull	manjuri.pbl@gmail.com	Help the youth to make choices and guide them and take up career counseling seriously in my region and intend to attend the Diploma Course organized by Promise Foundation next year.	Undertake a course to equip myself in career counseling and psychology. I would also like the Promise Foundation to conduct courses in rural areas where indigenous people are encouraged to carry on with their livelihood and link the formal and informal sector.
18	Archana Jain	jainarchanas@yahoo.co.in	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Use the knowledge, insights, perspectives I have gained from this conference to be a better professional. Continue the process of networking to ensure learning and pooling of information. 	IAEVG –Jiva conference to send/mail the paper of all the presentations.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
19	Singje Marak	singjemarak@gmail.com	Train teachers as professionals in career guidance and encourage others in my state to grab the opportunity The Promise Foundation offers and in turn offer career guidance and counseling to younger generation.	The Promise Foundation to partner and extend help in future endeavors.
20	Michel Turcotte	turcotte.michel@gmail.com	Collect information on ways practitioners collect evidences on the results	Sharing measures to collect those practices
21	Helle Merete Nordentoft (Jakobsen)	hnj@dpu.dk	Work on combining health care and career counselling	To get in touch with others who share an interest in this combination and integrate health related aspects in career counseling.
22	Pramod Kumar K S	kspramod83@rediffmail.com	Start career counseling in my projects and work	Promise Foundation to provide training/resource materials.
23	Rie Thomsen	riet@dpu.dk	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Do a literature review into experiences/ research on group guidance as method for career guidance. 2. Pursue my work the concept of context and place and the relevance to the guidance field. 	To get in touch with the people who have written about group counseling, career guidance in groups.
24	Devaraj Patil	dgpdevaraj@gmail.com , devudhamma@gmail.com	Do career counseling for marginalized students	To influence Government to bring policy on career guidance & who are working with students and youths
25	Bryan Hiebert	hiebert@ucalgary.ca	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Follow up with people who request the hand-outs of papers 2. Revise our evaluation model to include feedback I received from the presentation. 	Gideon and his team to publish the proceedings.
26	Nader Mryyan	nadern@nchrd.goo.jo	Look at the Austrian career guidance standards and the quality assurance standards	IAEVG to disseminate the best practices in career guidance delivery in the country members.
27		panditshilpa@hotmail.com	Work more in cross-cultural psychology, do research on crafts and farmers' sense of self.	Promise Foundation and other academics to do a project on perceptions and meaning of work in rural, migratory, emerging and urban cities. To do a project on career clusters across India.
28	Jenny Bimrose	jenny.bimrose@warwick.ac.uk	Research gender inequality in India	Career students to publish research results (poster session)

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
29		meghanaranjit@rediffmail.com	Guide my students through different alternatives that they have in front of them.	JIVA to help me in guiding my students.
30	Anu Abraham	anishpunnenpeter@gmail.com	Know about career counseling and guidance so that I can help the students I am teaching.	IAEVG-JIVA to conduct programmes or training to enhance the counselor with new technique to guide the students.
31	Aarti Gandhi	gandhi.aarti@gmail.com	Network with career counselors throughout the world and practice in a universal cultural context.	IAEVG, JIVA & others to continue to empower professionals towards making careers truly a celebration of life for all.
32	Madhavi Sheth	madhavi_solutions@hotmail.com	Become more effective in my work as well as keep in touch with all the professionals whom I met during the conference to exchange my ideas, as well as understand what is their opinion.	Jiva & Promise foundation to arrange programmes & training for the professionals.
33	Ishrath Nisar	nisar.ishrath@gmail.com	Start working with my virtual team which has been formed towards structuring the thinking and process of career counseling including "self and society" understanding of youth by understanding their social and cultural realities.	IAEVG and Promise to look into indigenous careers. Expanding the definition of careers and also understand the socio-economic and cultural realities of youth and their livelihoods.
34	Kekhrie	Kekhrie_Haralu@yahoo.co.in	Use what I've learned here from this conference and put it into practice. I've learned a lot from the workshop of career guidance and counseling in developing countries and at present. Since I am a student of counseling psychology, it has broaden my knowledge and enhanced my ideas . I intent to put into practice what I have learned and I am very sure that it will cater to the needs of my clients and my people and other. I intend to implement these things and put forward things in schools which will be after my studies.	IAEVG to open direct membership for students for those in NE India with a considerable amount for students. I hope that more members will be added to your family.
35		aienwalls@yahoo.co.in	Undergo career guidance training myself after my studies because as an intern counselor in a school at the moment, I have always felt the necessity of it. This conference has helped broaden my knowledge and I would like to explore and know more.	IAEVG-JIVA to bring in more youths into its family. God Bless :)
36	George Chen	george.wanman.chen@gmail	Explore more on career services studies and implementation	Jiva team to train students (us) of Martin Luther Christian University in career counseling.
37	Aida Dondor Phanwar	aidadondor@gmail.com	Take and make use of all the experiences I had during the conference in my future. I also intend to focus my career more on vocational and livelihood.	The Promise Foundation to conduct the JIVA career workshop for the students of MLCU, Shillong.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
38	Darisuk Kharlyngdoh	darisukk@gmail.com	Know more about career services in order to help the youths of the North East India and also to fit according to its context.	IAEVG JIVA career and Promise Foundation to help me fulfilled & also some of my classmates to help us fulfilled our dreams because the North East part of India is really lacking behind especially in career services.
39	Sharmila Menezes	ssm004@chowgules.ac.in	Take new ideas and use them to help youth into discovering their skill and interest not just through testing (as I thought) but through understanding him/her through sessions of interactions with the students and parents. I also learnt that students can have 2 careers one with interest and other potential. It helped me to interchange ideas in a way to increase my knowledge and thought.	Promise Foundation to continue having such conferences (maybe on a smaller scale) as a platform for career counselors to discuss, share and learn new methods and techniques on careers.
40	Rajshree	rsrajshree19@gmail.com	Develop all the counseling skills in myself. To learn more about career counseling and livelihood. I want to know how career counseling can help in corporates.	Promise Foundation and other such foundations/organization to provide their services in all parts of the country so that more people can be benefitted and know the importance of right career choice in life.
41		kangleewung@hotmail.com	Know more about different aspects of career counselling	Such conferences to organized frequently.
42	Latha Janaki R.	lathajanakiramanujam@gmail.com	Explore the various approaches/techniques to provide career guidance and train as much as the younger generation to guide the students of the nation to identify their career choice	Dr. Gideon to represent to the government in making up educational and vocational policies framed in such a manner that is useful and cover entire population of country and build the nation with a quality education and develop holistic Indian personalities.
43	Dr. Kalyani Kenneth	kalyanikenneth@gmail.com	Get back and work upon organizing "Training Programme on Career Counselling" for students and teachers; organizing "National level Conference in Career Counselling".	Promise Foundation to provide support by rendering resource persons services.
44	Dr. Subasree	subamalisree@gmail	Develop my professionalism, become member of IAEVG and IAACP, work with youth who are needy and underprivileged, be part of this forum to continue my learning to update my skills, have collaboration with Promise in future to do quality service for the community.	To be a constructive person who really contributes to society back, attain happiness and satisfaction through helping the needy. Suggestion- If you extend one more day it would have been more useful. All the participants details may be provided.

Intentions and Impressions

45	O Anuradha	anuoinam@gmail.com		IAEVG and alike organizations to promote the importance of career counseling for all actions of the society. Focus on multicultural competencies and career counseling for the underprivileged.
46	Coral Manhas	coralmanhas23@gmail.com	Bring in new diversion into the sphere of counseling. Career and guidance counseling requires potential of an individual into forefront. This can be done through a variety of methods, not just psychometry. The youth is in unrest and a solution needs to be found out and it is only through counseling that a difference can be brought.	IAEVG to look at the guidance and career guidance of people and adults who have been engaged in work but aren't satisfied with it. Infact career and guidance of all irrespective of age.
47	TVS Academy teachers	tvacademyhosur@yahoo.com	Continue supporting the children celebrate 'LIFE'. 'JIVE/PROMISE' have already ignited the 'flame', in lighting their 'CAREER PATHWAYS'.	To adapt Leong's SOC Model to help children create/recreate their stories in their journey of life. The conference has provided the reassurance that we are moving on the right track in guiding young aspirants in making right career choices!
48	Zeba	Shania107@gmail.com	Take up MPhil course in career counseling in 'The Promise Foundation'.	To make a career in Career Counselling and set up a center in my place in order to make the students there aware of their potentials and interests and help them choose a career which would be beneficial in the long run.
49	Put Sangba Chang	putichang@yahoo.com	To take the MPhil in Career in Counselling	Promise Foundation to organize more of this seminar for students who are interested to take up career counseling as their profession.
50	Priscilla Rajakumar	priscilla.nisha@gmail.com	Take back some of the learning that I've received from this conference (Career Beliefs. Parental Expectation, Jiva Counselling Approach) back to the school where I counsel. I felt Dr. Gideon Arulmani was exceptionally good in all his presentations!	The Promise Foundation to give me the details of how I could contact them as I require guidance in helping some of the children who come to me for counseling. It was a lovely conference and very well organized!! =)
51	A R Vishwanath	anekatte@gmail.com	Start story telling technique in career counseling	JIVA (promise foundation) to influence government of Karnataka to appoint career counselor in high school level.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
52	Shabila Wani	Ph: 9906099013	Understand the spiral of career thoroughly so that I can make others understand also the better career choices.	To join course through JIVA to update myself so that I can update others. IAEVG-JIVA should try to focus on groups who have limited career choices, who are living in areas facing turmoil like Kashmir and other places.
53	Arti Bakshi	artibakshi@gmail.com	Learn that career counseling is the need of the hour because lot of people who entered in any career are not of their choice but helpless, because they entered into it and are never satisfied. So the proper training regarding the training of these skills are to be given to the students and the teachers who are involved in teaching or guiding.	IAEVG-JIVA to help the teachers of J & K state to provide and develop the skills to become a good career counselor. To initiate the course work at the University level.
54	Nikita Bengani	nikita@questalliance.net	Work more actively and contribute more effectively towards career counseling for disadvantaged youth.	Explore further how career counseling can be used more effectively for disadvantaged youth in the vocational context to help disadvantaged youth have better access to career services and earn better livelihoods. Also explore for migratory communities.
55	Jukka Lerkkanen	jukka.lerkannen@jamk.fi	Develop needs assessment tools for guidance	Have more journals to publishing papers of guidance and counseling.
56	Nutan Mishra	tanya_nutan@yahoo.co.in	Set up and sustain career counseling resource centre	Promise Foundation to offer help, guidance and support.
57	Maryanne Mooney	projects@ceav.vic.edu.au	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Apply for EVGP accreditation (personal) 2. Map the CEAV Career Practitioner Certificate to EVGP core competencies 3. Apply for EVGP course accreditation 	Participate in an online course to develop my own e-learning skills. I would like IAEVG to make the ppt presentations available from a centralized site.
58			Explore how craft relates to self employment in the Canadian context to see how these craft persons plan to manage their careers.	To incorporate spirit to my work more fully when considering my practice.
59	K M Narayana	kmnarayana57@gmail.com	Dedicate myself to career counseling with the help of Jiva-Promise foundation, Bangalore particularly underprivileged in rural area	To enrich my knowledge to be more effective & useful to the society. Learn the art of career counseling. Thank you very much...
60	Naomi Corlett	office@ceav.vic.edu.au	Reflect on my experiences and the notes I have taken	The CEAV to use story telling to create resources for indigenous young people.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
61	Mrs Rhonda Divecha & Ms. Rinku Gala	rhondiv@rediffmail.com , rinkugala88@gmail.com	Work towards the publication of the posters we created for the conference as there were a large number of delegates who requested the copy of the posters, to use in their practice/teaching.	IAEVG & Promise Foundation to increase the number of countries that area participating in the conference and not to keep parallel sessions because we miss on some of the sessions we would want to attend.
62	Sandhya Nair	nairsandhya_hd@yahoo.com	Work on increasing the sample size of my research paper so that we can explore a wide range of responses and have a global perspective. I would also work towards the publication of my poster.	IAEVG & the Promise Foundation to organize many more such conferences in India and I would especially like to invite IAEVG and the Promise Foundation to Mumbai.
63	Krupa Bhatt	Krupa.bhatt@gmail.com	Explore more in the field of career counseling and guidance to gain more indepth perspective into it. Also work on publishing our poster.	To thank Dr Arulmani, our teachers to give me and our students such an opportunity to explore, gain knowledge, to grow in the field, look from different perspective to extend the social network for the future career. Also looking forward to attend such conferences that the IAEVG organization will hold in future.
64	Kamakshi Kartik	kamakshi.kartik@gmail.com	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Train with Promise Foundation to assist rural youth in livelihood issues. To work with rural youth and adults on living in touch with their earth. 	Promise Foundation to reach out to the rural youth
65	G Jayaprakash Rao	jayaprakashraog@gmail.com	Change my job	To start a new organization to help the challenged and the underprivileged
66	K V Chalapathy	Venkatachalapathy.kolluri@gmail.com	Be a career counselor. This conference gave a lot of encouragement in understanding the concept. I am very thankful for giving me the opportunity to know more about the present day situation. I have taken membership in IACLP to go with the professional guidance. I want to take part in IAEVG	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> To be equipped with more competencies in handling the adolescent, poor in carer guidance in AP I like to know more on the papers submitted/presented in the conference as that have taken place in parallel sessions. If possible send them/mail them.
67	Riddhi Dedhia	dedhiariddhi@gmail.com	Attend more conferences and keep on growing myself, and my ideas as I have achieved by attending this conference also	To thank the JIVA team for organizing such a powerful and valuable conference and all the people who gave played role in my being present in this conference.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
68	Nitika Aggarwal, Payal Rathod, Ushna Vora	nitika.research@gmail.com, payalrathod2387@yahoo.com , ush_13688@ayhoo.com	Attend more conferences and participate	All experts in this field to provide us students with more opportunities and support for building a successful career.
69	Ankita Parekh	ankita_p@hotmail.com	Imbibe the experience and put the learning into action	To work even harder for the field of human development to explore and broaden the different genres related to the field.
70	Yuju Francis	yujufancis@gmail.com	Attend the workshop on career counselling	I would like Jiva to inform me how much would be the course fee for teachers (if they apply as a group)
71	Thomas	thomasparayill04@yahoo.co.in	Learn more about career counselling	I would like attend to workshop
72	Biju Sebastian	bijseban@gmail.com	Learn more about career counselling
73	Dr. Kamini Rege	kprege@gmail.com	I intend to publish my research paper presented at Jiva conference, also would like to highlight how preschoolers identify with the careers that the wish to be in with the unfulfilled expectations and needs.	I would like as a consultant to many organisations and institutes working in the field of 'early childhood care and education', would help them develop a curriculum that would follow 'non-sexist approach' towards play, education and socialisation.
74	Laltanpuii Ralte	Tanpuii_ralte@yahoo.com	I intend to join more workshops that have been highlighted during the conference. I hope to utilise what I have learnt through these three days in our newly incepted career guidance and counselling programme at Mizoram University, Mizoram.	I would like Jiva to make available to us the various papers presented in the conference as well as details of the presentations for future reference (either in paper form or in CDs).
75	Linda Santos	Lindasantos66@yahoo.com	I intend to change my style in career counselling by incorporating some of the techniques that were demonstrated through the conference. I particularly enjoyed the sessions related to narrative therapies and I would definitely like to learn more about this therapy. Thanks to all the organisers... this has been a truly enriching experience. I cannot allow its impact to stagnate!	I would like IACLCP to offer some training programmes to its members which would deal with furthering on skills in narratives. And to keep us informed of other innovative technologies.
76	R. Parikh	Radha_parikh@daiict.ac.in	I intend to include some career counselling relevant/information in the awareness workshops on violence against women / empowerment of women	I would like to involve promise to advice on how to go about this if they can let me know ratio of boys : girls who have received career counselling from them.
77	Dr. Rita Paes	paesritap@rediffmail.com	I intend to revise my postgraduate diploma in guidance and counselling course and strengthen the career guidance component.	I would like IACLCP to provide regular inputs to help us sharpen, perfect the skills of those we have already trained. Involve some of our faculty in your training programmes.

Intentions and Impressions

78	Sr. Antoinette Coutinho	-	I intend to invest in complementing some of the concepts I have imbibed through these very comprehensive and deeply experimented and presented sessions.	I would like to learn more to give more of my experience and that IAEVG reach out to the unreached population in our country (cornered by all types of our systems or threatened by us) to bring these people in line with our age old work – integrated in our technology on priority basis before it is lost and gone forever. Redefine our terminology and shift our prejudices.
79	Parijat Bhuyan	Parijat_bhuyan@rediffmail.com	I intend to follow up and implement wherever possible certain aspects of the various workshops and paper presentation relevant to senior secondary children. Career counselling to be made a long term process.	I would like the promise foundation to keep me updated about its upcoming conferences, workshops, research work etc related to dealing adolescents.
80	Anna Paszkowska	paszkow@uni .	I intend to read more about narrative counselling	I would like to participate in next counselling 2012
81	R K Chari	Rkchari2491@gmail.com	I intend to encourage career counsellors to be more target audience oriented. I think the counsellor has the double task of counselling the parent as much as the young adults.	I would like to ask TPF to lead the way to a wholly different way of thinking amongst counsellors.
82	A Lyngkhei	alcydalynelyngkhei@gmail.com	I intend to explore more on career guidance and counselling and to apply and confer the knowledge I've learnt from this conference and to move ahead as a student of counselling psychology to try removing the impossibilities to the possibilities for myself first as well as to my beloved kind. It is a challenge.	I would like IACLIP to move ahea the desired aim and to be able to do something for people who pursue livelihoods (agriculture, crafts, etc) which some people think that they are not careers at all which is faced by many individuals in my country (India) to brighten their life and their future as well.
83	Georg Kaufmann	Georg.kaufmann@abb.llv.li	I intend to do Simon Easton's WRQoL, use more often the technique 'supporting circle' which helps to find the potential of young people with special needs.	I would like TPF to go on with their important and precious work. Thank you very much for a fantastic conference.
84	Jane Westergaard		I intend to continue my investigation into delivering career counselling in the group context, which seems to happen with ease in India, but in the UK careers counsellors are often resistant.	I would like all guidance bodies to lobby politicians and policy makers to take seriously the role that guidance can play in the lives (not just the 'careers') of the young people if adequately funded.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
85	Fr. Brian Moras	bmoras@gmail.com	I intend to work with a broader perspective about life and careers.	I would like Don Bosco institution to get more involved in developing career as a celebration of life in helping young people.
86	Carol Andrews	carolandrews@ihug.co.nz	I intend to share the very many things I have learned with my career advisor and senior management at Epsom Girls Grammar School. I also intend to place even more emphasis on spirituality and the soul in understanding students core beliefs, before attempted to advise them on external career choices and outcomes.	I would like Gideon to please mail me his outstanding sessions on the Jiva method of career guidance. It was stimulating, thought-provoking and very practical. May I commend Gideon and everyone involved on an absolutely outstanding conference. It has been superbly organised but the greatest gift has been the warmth we have all received. You have all come from your hearts. Thank you.
87	S Bala Sathkurunathan	balaak@reiffmail.com	I intend to adapt the methods, tools, techniques and the process discussed during the special and general sessions of this wonderful and realistic international conference with my organisation and others in my field of work.	I would like the organisers and speakers to allow persons like me to take part in various other conventions and conferences not only in India and also abroad with scholarship/stipend assistance. Many regards and wishes for the host/funded organisations.
88	Emma	Emma_jyрева@yahoo.com	I intend to equip myself more with the skill of career counselling using the different techniques like storytelling and narrative therapy.	I would like to apply what I have learnt to my own people (tribals) and the first step would be bringing awareness about career counselling and as a counsellor I would like to explore the different careers that can help them to use the alternatives and help them those where they fit in using the different techniques esp using narrative therapy.
89	Dev Lahiri	Dev_lahiri@yahoo.com	I intend to be more optimistic about the future of this country! Also I would like to look at the career potential of children with special need more closely. And finally, I would like to use what I have learnt here to try and sensitise parents to the needs of a rapidly changing society, so that they play a more purposeful role in career guidance.	I would like TPF to help put career counselling on a scientific platform in my school to begin with and then perhaps all over North India.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
90	I. Lahiri	Indrani.lahiri@hotmail.com	I intend to a) hijack some of the resource persons to North India! b) get more actively involved with slum children and their career choices	I would like TPF to come to the north and spread their good work.
91	Linden West	Linden.west@canterbury.ac.uk	I intend to think some more about approaches both to practise and research that are less 'scientific' and 'reductionist'.	I would like to network with others and to do more collaborative writing on these themes given my experience of biographical narrative research.
92	Helmut Zelloth	hze@etf.europa.eu	I intend to further explore the cultural specificities and context that matter for career guidance (theory, models and practice) in different countries and cultures.	I would like IAEVG, ICCDPP to do the same (through working group, joint research activity)
93	Klas Tallvid	Klas.tallvid@soderhamn.se	I intend to learn more about cross cultural guidance and development of guidance in developing countries.	-
94	Payal Maheshwari	Payalm004@gmail.com	I intend to publish my research; this conference has given a good platform to interact with professionals in the field of career guidance and I intend to be in communication with experts in the field of career guidance information and specifically including in relation using emotions in the career guidance while making career choices.	I would like to develop an EI test that could be used by counsellors to help students in making career choices, further research on views/perceptions of work across developmental stage and use the research in mentoring children at a younger age towards understanding their own interests and how they can work on it to form their careers.
95	Bernadette Gigliotti	Director@ceav.vic.edu.au	I intend to explore possible ways of including cultural diversity into our professional training	I would like TPF to develop a storytelling resource – a compilation of Asian/Eastern folk stories that can be used in career counselling group sessions in schools.
96	Gayathri Srinath	gayuam@gmail.com	I intend to learn and grow as a counsellor	I would like myself to be equipped to practice as a freelance counsellor what next?
97	-	-	I intend to use the information that I got here in the conference in my vocational guidance work.
98	Shriekala S. Nambiar	Shri21872@yahoo.co.in	I intend to use the learning in my project. Conduct a research study in career maturity.
99	Nirmala Visveswaran	Nirmala_vish@yahoo.co.in	I intend to my chairman about starting career counselling in a systematic way for the students of IX to XII. For obvious reasons we can allot more time for this in IX to XI than in X in XII respectively.	I would like TPF to send me details for training our teachers and also for sending details of programs for students.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
100	Anjali Hardikar	Anjali.hardikar@tges.org	I intend to keep in touch with the new friends with similar passions. The end in mind would be to create model for career counselling which can be weaved in the curriculum.	I would like to interact with people who share my goals to make it come true.
101	Nigel Phillips, Saurabh Kumar	nphillips@careersfasttrack.com , saurabh@careersfasttrack.com	I intend to learn more about the Jiva approach in schools.	I would like to give my support in development to grow human life in the reality construct theory for today.
102	Ellen Fleming	Ellen.fleming@bigpond.com	I intend to remodel the YVS 9-12 careers program at my school, using some of the models demonstrates during the conference.	I would like see more practical school based examples that demonstrate the theories that underpin CD theory.
103	Gurpreet T Singh	Gtsingh1971@gmail.com	I intend to do a career development program by Jiva which happens to be a 7 day program.	I would like the organisers to conduct a training program for counsellors (if possible in N. Delhi).
104	Swathi Menon	Menonswathi09@gmail.com	I intend to get in touch with Jiva and enrol myself for the certificate course	I would like contribute to field of career psychology
105	Kirit Mehta	kirtsir@gmail.com	I intend to spread benefits of career psychology process to millions of Indians.	I would like Mr. Arulmani to contact me with Jiva details as I would like to join certificate course and MPhil program.
106	Verena Flubacher	vflubacher@bluewin.ch		I would like to thank you for the excellent organisation.
107	Karen Schober	karen@schober-briukmann.de	Intensify the exchange of international, multi-cultural exchange of experience among career professionals by visiting persons from a different cultural background to national events, conferences etc.	I found it however interesting that career guidance concepts from India are not so different from what we have in Europe - but our practice very often does not correspond to our concepts.
108	Rachel Valles	rachelvalles@gmail.com	Put into practice all the techniques and insights that have been developed, right through the conference. Spread awareness by dialoging with colleagues about V.G being more than just psychological testing.	The Promise Foundation to promote career guidance methodology so that there can be a more person oriented approach to career guidance rather than the currently prevailing psychometric approach.
109	Kamini	kamini@moonshadowstories.org	Follow up on the various enquires, ideas, suggestions I've received. Take the leap into storytelling-in-counseling.	The Promise Foundation to continue its mind-blowing work.
110	-----	-----	-----	Promise foundation to continue their work with young people, and to keep their enthusiasm. Nice idea of counting on all stake holders to share their views and impressions on the conference

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
111	-----	-----	To continue working along the line I've been doing so far, taking into account cultural diversity and promoting intercultural relations. The alternative methods have been presented as new however they are already starting to be incorporated in western guidance, although of course In a minor way.	IAEVG to be more coherent with the topics of the conferences it leads and to try to implement those issues we "preach", or talk about. Thank you!
112	-----	-----	Find a way to engage practioners in my province to share insights and learning from the conference and my journey to India- with a specific interest in spirit and story-telling in a multi-cultural context.	-----
113	P. Kharbhih	possarak@yahoo.com	Put into practice what ever I had learned from this conference. I had learn so much from the conference and as a career counselor, I would try to help students and adults from what I had learn from the conference.	The Promise Foundation to carry on with their good work which have really help everyone who had attend the conference and to continue to help students and teenagers to choose the right career in life.
114	Sheila Premchand	sheila.prenchand@gmail.com	To widen my horizon with new approach towards my students	Like Jiva to have more network and keep the potential new members up-dated with regards to counseling.
115	Barbara Bassot	Babarbar.bassot@canterbury.ac.uk	To share my experiences with the MA in Career Guidance students in their Equality and Social Justice and Reflective Professional Development modules. Continue with my reflective diary and write a paper on my experiences of leading a workshop on reflective practices at the conference.	To think more about the notes I wrote to myself when issues came up that really challenged my thinking. Maintain contact with the people I met.
116	Vriti Vasudevan	vritivasudevan@gmail.com	To explore some productive strategies in the field of career counseling for special population and try to give importance to 'self' rather to the concept of 'personality'.	Like Promise Foundation to extend their service even for the transgender, lesbian, gays etc. I felt that, intheir sessions, no bosity talked about these aspects and also extend their services to Kerala, which is known to be 100% literacy state, but the importance and need for career counseling is not visible there....
117	Ivyreen Warjri	dorian_grey27@yahoo.in	To learn more about indigenous psychology to fit my cultural content	Like Jiva to grow and progress indefinitely.
118	Heta Kapadia	say_yes2aol@yahoo.com kapadiaheta@gmail.com	To complete my studies in Masters in human Development successfully.	Like to work as a professional counselor to make a difference in the quality of life of the people in the society.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
119	Dagrik Gara	dagnikingo@gmail.com	To learn more and more of career counseling and put into the practice in the real situation with real people-who are well clothed. But not well educated regarding career choicing.	Like IAEVG-Jiva to organize more conference on Guidance and counseling as today. But I request the executive members to re-think and include the program for the disabled student too for their future perspective.
120	A. Mary Fatima Flavia	maryflavia@yahoo.com	To follow the various tools for career guidance and planning to take to the youth. I also intend to stretch out the hearts and minds of youth through career guidance. Planning to take CRAFT class to the youth as a career.	Like Jiva to take or carry out or reach out method to the lower middle class.
121	Sobita Kirtani	Suk004@chowgules.ac.in	To sensitze teachers in my institute about their role through participation in career counseling activities. Also, help the career counseling cell in our institute to develop a database.	Like Promise Foundation to have a network across India (they might already be doing this) or career counselors. This can be done to assure quality of counseling activities as also evaluation of these activities.
122	Meera Suresh kumar		To guide youth with value addition I had with little more qualitative dimension.	Like IAEVG-Jiva to network
123			To contribute in the active and on-going discussion on career services.	Like livelihood connect platform to take this discussion forward and collaborate actively to design innovative career guidance services for youths.
124	Ramya	mybigbrightworld@gmail.com	To inculcate whatever I've learned from the conference into my daily life.	-----
125	Lucette Virgincar	Nirmala Inst of Education- Goa.	To use many of the ideas from the various sessions whenever they apply to the course I teach in career counseling- guidance and counseling.	Like IACLIP to help us keep in touch with each other and an update also help give us a serious thought to the use of some of the effective rich methods to career counseling.
126	G Ramesh	rameshgopagoni@gmail.com	To help the students to choose their career.	Like students to choose their right careers of their own,
127	Alem	solem.vashum@gmail.com	To work with/for children of less privileged children.	Like guidance and counseling to be accessible for these children.
128	Fredrick Leong	fleong@msu.edu	To develop indigenou models of career development and vocational psychology. I would like to invite colleagues to contact me if they are interested in collaboration.	To invite the Promise Foundation to join me in this project.

Intentions and Impressions

S. No	Name	Email	I intend to	I would like
129	Vividh Pawaskar	jcimargao@sify.com vividh.pawaskar@shreemallikarjuncollege.org	To be proactive in career and guidance counseling.	Like to empower myself to bring about a positive change,. And garner support for the IACLP programs in Goa.
130	Pavithra .S	Pavissm666@gmail.com	To know more about the skills about career counseling which help in rural sector, and in undeveloped places.	Like Promise Foundation to introduce more soft skills and life skills in the school on the 10 th and 12 th grade. Because that may help students to build strongly about their career (in future). Thank You.
131	Sneha Burman	snehaburman@gmail.com	To implement all the learnings and experience gained at the conference.	Like to look forward to such experiences/ events in the future. Thank you.
132	K.A.Anagha	k.a.anagha@gmail.com	To know if there are any other conferences conducted which are pertaining to psychology.	Like Promise Foundation to inform me about their activities which would be conducted in Bangalore.
133	Manjuri	manjuribharati@gmail.com	To take the knowledge to magnify it.	Like to utilize all my resources to help the needy.
134	Rijo Raghavan	drummindaemon@gmail.com	To follow on the many inputs on the career guidance field that I've gathered from this conference and branch out my knowledge on a local and global aspect.	Like the Promise Foundation to bring up more conferences like this and specifically, more sessions of the story telling and interpretation aspect.
135	Kartik Kalyanram	yvsrhc@gmail.com	To continue working with rural youth, talking to them, understanding their hopes, aspirations. Understanding how they see their lives unfold, what they see as their future.	Like to try and bring Livelihood planning to rural youths so that they understand their strengths and from that understand what they could do. Try and make them understand that all jobs have an equal dignity.